The Northern California Institute of Golf

Presents:

GAME of WEDGES

Assessing Your Wedge Performance
With Coaches Ken and Joe

Assessments are an important part of the learning landscape. Only hitting shots without consequences limits your ability to play better golf. To reach your peak performance, it is important to practice scenarios building your skills and reflect your experience on the course.

This 2-hour, one time session will help you assess your skill level with your wedges from 50 yards and closer. Through task-based assessments, combining testing and positive reinforcement, you will receive helpful feedback on your wedge skill level.

This class is limited to 8 students

See you in class!
